LIEUTENANT SCOTT STRICKEN WITH FEVER.

COLUMBUS, N. M., June 20.—Lieutenant David H. Scott, son of General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff of the United States army, arrived here today from the field suffering with a tropical fever. He will be taken to the military hospital in Washington for treatment.

Are you nervous? Do you have headache? Are you wearing the right kind of glasses? I straighten cross-eyes with glasses.

Many children are dwarfed both mentally and physically by defective eyes that are corrected by glasses, but not the kind sold or fitted in drug, jewelry, department, ten-cent stores, or by peddlars.

I have been in constant practice and experience for twenty-three years and am a graduate of the McCormick Medical College, Chicago, Illinois, and keep up to date by post-graduate work every two years.

I have permanent offices in Bisbee, Arizona, Rooms 10 and 11, Maze (I. O. O. F.) Building. Phone 156, except Monday, when I will be in Douglas at the Hotel Gadsden.
